Clearances included (Mark with an X) Yes_____ No, but coming____

Clearances needed for volunteers over 18 who will have direct contact with children are:

1. Pennsylvania Child Abuse History Clearances (CCY113)
2. Pennsylvania Criminal Record Checks for Volunteers (SP-164A)
3. (If you have lived outside Pennsylvania in the last 10 years) FBI Criminal Background Checks. The first two forms are available to you at www.dhs.pa.gov/publications/findaform/childabusehistoryclearanceforms/index.htm, and you may call the FBI Background Check Unit at (717) 783-6211 for information about #3. If you already have been cleared within the past five years, either for volunteering or employment, your clearances are still in effect and you simply need to submit a copy. If you have not, then because you are a new volunteer applicant for these clearances, your fees will be waived. Please be timely in obtaining your clearances, because the turnaround time can be up to 2 weeks. Need help figuring this out? Call the Peace and Justice Center at (570) 823-9977. Thank you very much for helping us create a safe environment!
